Food Costs Show Downward Trend

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 19.—Food prices for the average American family dropped two-tenths of one per cent. in the month from April 15 to May 15, according to a report on retail food prices in 31 cities made public today by the Department of Labor. The figures showed a decline of 2 per cent. in the average price from May 15 last year.

Although twenty-five cities showed an increase in retail prices for the month the decrease in twenty-three, with three others remaining stationary, was sufficient to cause an average decline. The greatest increase, 2 per cent., was reported for Philadelphia while the maximum decrease of two per cent. was enjoyed by residents of Little Rock, Los Angeles, Memphis and Mobile.

Youth Is Attacked On Entering Home

Details of a vicious attack made Monday night on Ralph Batin, at his home on Washington street were learned today. Young Batin was savagely attacked, supposedly by a burglar as he entered the front door of his home, no other members of the household being there at the time.
It was said that Batin entered the house to retire for the night. He was caught by the burglar, who struck him a severe blow with some thing and he fell to the floor semi-conscious. The intruder then almost strangled him by choking and fled from the house. His cries attracted the attention of neighbors who hurried to the house and found the lad lying in a half-conscious condition on the floor. A chair was found overturned and it is thought that it was with this piece of furniture with which young Batin was first struck. He has recently been operated on for appendicitis and the wound was again opened afresh as result of the attack and it was necessary to call a physician.
No other motive for the intruder being in the house than for robbery could be given, since so far as known Batin had made no enemies. It is believed that when Batin entered, the alleged robber, to escape detection, attacked the young man and then fled.

SIDELIGHTS ON CONVENTION

(Copyright 1934, The Bee.)

NEW YORK, June 19.—The preparations being made here for the Democratic national convention are in striking contrast with the arrangements for the Republican convention at Cleveland. New York has conceived the idea that something like 100,000 or 200,000 visitors are coming to this city during the week or possibly the weeks of the convention. Just where they are all coming from and what they will do after they get here nobody seems to know.

Madison Square Garden has been constructed to seat about 14,000 persons, so some outside "amusement" on the 14,000 seats must be provided for the 100,000 or more shutouts will try at some time or another to crash the gate into the convention hall or at least to get in the vicinity of the historic old building. They will do it in a great corner of the police thrown about the garden and persons without tickets will be kept a long way off.

In Cleveland the convention throngs were all expected to be there. Very little policing was required about the public hall where the sessions of the convention was held. About all the Cleveland cops had to do was to try to keep the jay walkers on the streets in the straight and narrow paths laid down for pedestrians at the busy intersections. The people of Cleveland themselves were very orderly about the convention. Those who failed to get tickets simply stayed away. The made the task of the handlers of the convention quite simple.

Here in New York it is quite different. This is the most curious town in the world. Let a man stop and cast his eyes to the sky and he will have second thoughts about his own safety. He will be around him and be stretching their necks to the limit, trying to find what it is all about.

The Democratic convention has caught the imagination of the plain people and the party faithful to get in if they can. The fact that Al Smith is going to be fighting in the big arena is enough to make New Yorkers sit up and take notice. There is no doubt as to how the governor is idolized in his own town. He came from the sidewalks of New York and they'll sing that old ballad a good many times in Madison Square Garden before the convention is over.

Before the excited rush of thousands to the convention, the hotel managers of the city report that they have plenty of rooms. Only a dozen of the more central hotels are being used officially for the convention delegates and visitors. The hotels are saying on in quite a normal way and there is not likely to be any call at all for the 35,000 or 50,000 flats and apartments placed at the disposal of the committee on arrangements.

Right up to the opening of the convention, the local committee is carrying on the nonpartisan idea and organization which launched the move to bring the Democrats here. It is a strange thing to see such a grand old party subvert as Frank A. Munsey inspecting the garden to see officially if everything possible was being done to make the pow-wow of the Democrats a success. In 1912, Munsey was a "bull moose" but like all the other "moose" of those hectic days he is once more back in the Republican fold. Incidentally a painting of Roosevelt was hung in the convention hall in Cleveland for the first time since 1912.

There will be no lack of color in the New York convention. Madison Square Garden is a striking contrast to the convention hall at Cleveland. In the city by the bay the natural beauty of the new auditorium was stressed and outside the big flag and the three paintings at the back of the stage, there were absolutely no decorations. Madison Square Garden has no natural interior beauty and therefore the angular lines and steel skeletons have been camouflaged and hidden as much as possible under a billowing mass of flag and pennants, shields and bunting. When the crowds get inside it will be a gala enough place.

"So this is politics!" the title of another and it takes some wise-cracks at all the politicians.

Florenz Ziegfeld has kept his promise to bring out a new "folies" if the convention was awarded to New York. Up to that time he had announced his intention to quit the "folies" business for keeps. Last time a new "folies" was produced he charged $22 a piece for the first night tickets. Only $5.50 will be charged next Tuesday night, an dthe seats have been allotted almost entirely to prominent New York Democrats who will see that they reach such benefits. Delegates and visitors as wish to go. The authorities have promised to chop off the heads of any ticket speculator caught in the act during the convention period.

The reports being circulated by his political rivals that Senator Pat Harrison will represent a Ku Klux Klan convention in his home State when he starts to keynote the national convention, makes the opening arrangement all the more interesting. Cardinal Hayes is to deliver the invocation.

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, June 19.—Out-of-town leaders at the convention expect to spend considerable time here after it opens next Tuesday. Many say they look for a new record in ballots before a candidate for president is nominated. The present record of 46 ballots was set at Baltimore in 1912 when Woodrow Wilson broke a deadlock and won the nomination. The next highest was at San Francisco, when James M. Cox was selected as standard bearer on the 44th ballot.

Alabama will have its customary priority for the usual alphabetical reason in the Avenue of states. It will be represented by the block on Fifth Avenue between Waverly place and Eighth street, which will be decorated with the state's flag and colors. The states will continue alphabetically up the avenue until Wyoming finishes on the block between 57th and 58th streets.

The entertainment program opens today with a pre-convention luncheon to arriving delegates. Cordell Hall, chairman of the national committee, Homer S. Cummings, Senator Pat Harrison and Joseph Day, will give Don C. Ziff, of the New York World, will act as toastmaster.
In the Hotel McAlpin headquarters were opened today for a favorite son candidate concerning whom comparatively little has been heard in New York up to the present. The candidate is Governor Jonathan M. Davis, of Kansas. The headquarters is unpretentious but there is a constant stream of callers and a steady distribution of literature, photographs and information about the governor.

A lady bearing a wet plank has arrived in the person of Miss Helen L. Laughan, of Washington, D. C., with her avowed intention of laying it before the platform committee of the Democratic national convention. The plank calls for the modification of the Volstead act to allow light wines and beer.

The house committee of the Hotel Men's Association gives out the following information in somewhat disappointed terms:

"Talk of 200,000 and 250,000 persons coming to New York is nonsense. We found out how many people usually go to Democratic conventions by consulting railroad records. These show that 10,000 people went to Baltimore, 15,000 to St. Louis, and 12,000 to San Francisco.

If New York gets twice as many we will be doing very well indeed. We will have many vacant rooms."

After a prolonged study of the favorite dishes, Joseph Burger, president of the United Restaurant Owners Association, announced today that arrangements have been made to serve each delegate with the food to which he has been accustomed or to afford him a complete switch in diet.

"For the delegates from the southeastern states," said Mr. Burger, "there will be fried chicken, Virginia ham and old-fashioned southern waffles. For the delegates from Louisiana and the nearby states there will be creole dishes. For the southwesterners there will be Mexican specialties, such as hot tamales and chile con carne. The far westerners will get boiled squabs, boiled turkey with celery sauce, boiled onions, steamed sweet potatoes and butter Scotch pie. There will be weiner schnitzel with paprika sauce, parsley potatoes and egg noodles for those from the middle and northwest."

McAdoo supporters have adopted the slogan with which they boomed the claims of their candidate at the Golden Gate: "Mc'll do."

Funeral of Slain Woman Held Today, Husband At Large

(By The Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, Va., June 19.—While the search for Walter Eydor was being extended today to cover every state east of the Mississippi river, funeral services for his bride of a little more than two months were held from the undertaking establishment where her body was taken Tuesday morning after being found floating in the James River here. Interment was made in Oakwood cemetery.

Meantime, coroner J. M. Whitfield was preparing to hold an inquest tomorrow morning into the cause of the death of the woman, whose parents told the police she divorced son after her marriage to Sidnor that he already had a wife here. The last clue to the whereabouts of Eydor was furnished the authorities by the girl's parents, who said he left their home Saturday afternoon after reaching an agreement with his wife for their separation.
Mrs. Eydor left the house soon afterward to meet her husband for a final talk.

Evelyn Nesbit Is Divorced Again

Helen Wills Losses To Miss McKane In Tournament

(By The Associated Press.)
WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 19.—Miss Helen Wills, American woman tennis champion, was defeated in straight sets today by Miss Kathleen McKane, ranking British woman player 6-2, 6-2 in the British versus American women's tournament. This victory gave the British team four victories and the match.

Blowout of foot as well as erratic stroking brought about Miss Wills' downfall. Miss McKane led the attack at most stages and kept the commanding position nearly all the time. She won all but two of the three of the long rallies. The Californian, although brilliant at times, seemingly could not abstain from errors more than a moment or two.

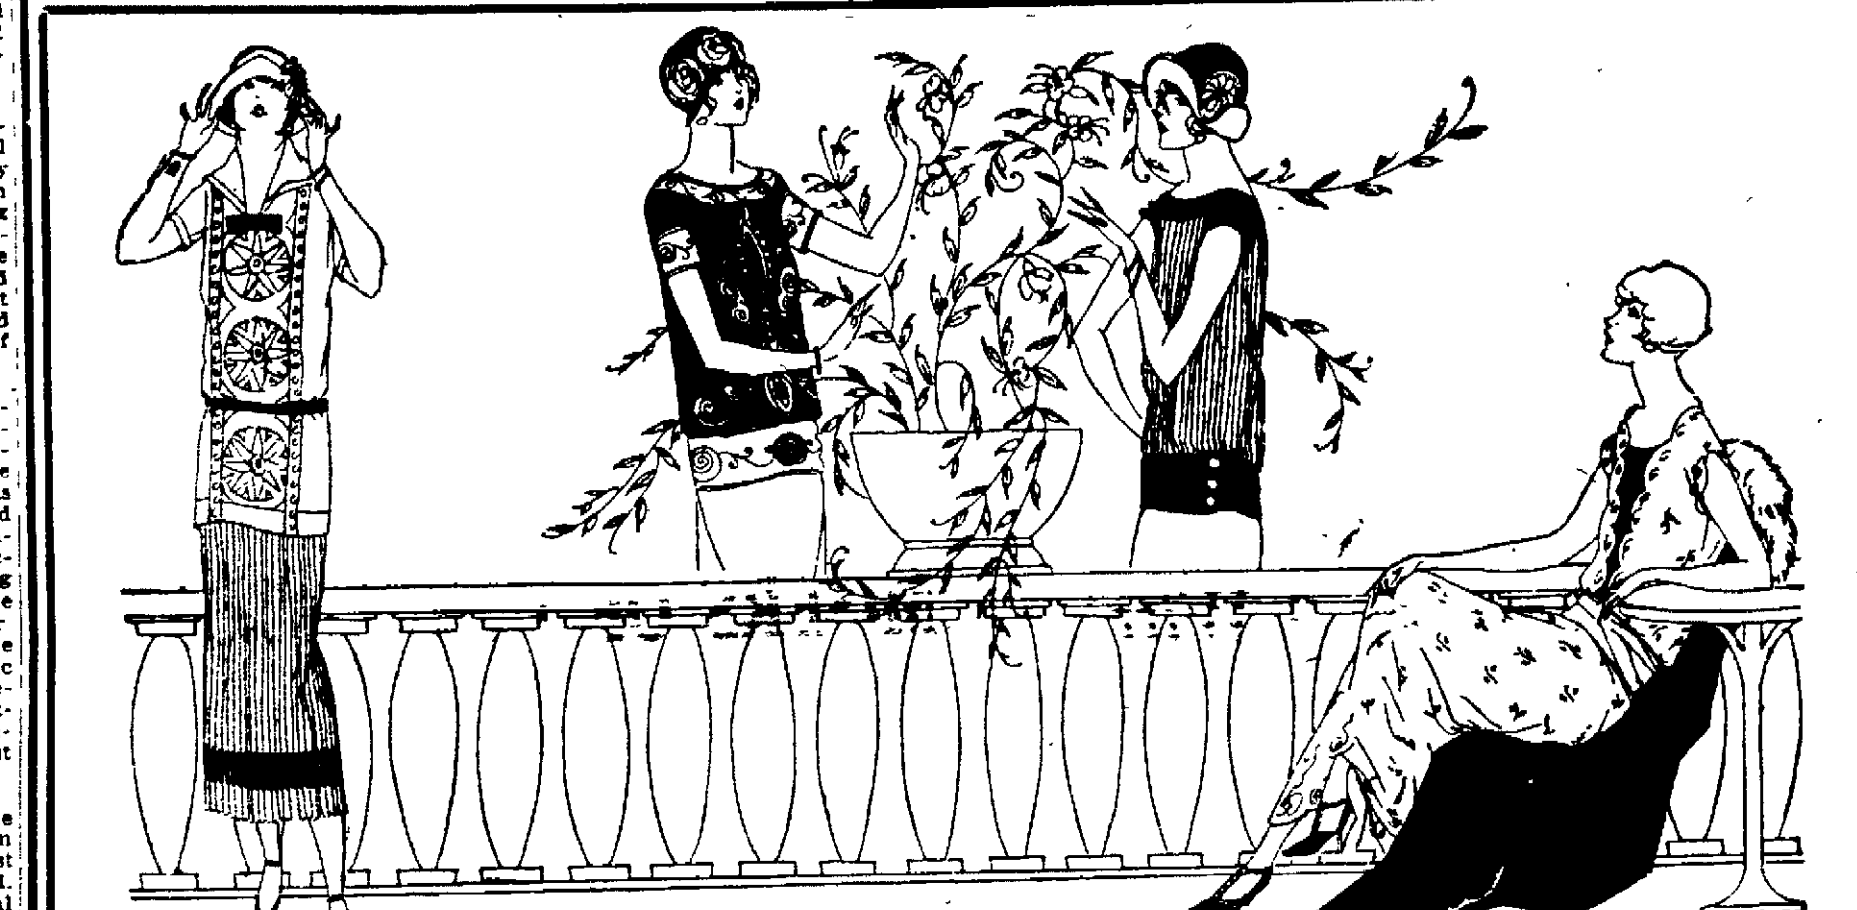

Miss Wills lost on service in the first 4-1, three netting the ball. Miss McKane won the second game, 7-5 and the third 4-2. The Californian was netting often but usually just at the tape. It was the English girl's faster foot work that told. She won all but two of the three of the long rallies. The Californian, although brilliant at times, seemingly could not abstain from errors more than a moment or two.

After dropping the first four games Miss Wills took the next two at a furious driving pace, passing her opponent with slashing low drives, but a series of mistakes lost her the critical th game after deuce had been called three times. In the decisive eighth game she was outplayed on a downright by the English player.

There wouldn't be any "next war."

A war without someone cleaning up big profits is beyond the powers of imagination. No chance of robbing the government on war contracts, or profiteering on the public. What would be the use of having such a war?

Our national war debt is big enough but war-inflated prices have cost the public even more. There was the big epidemic of profiteering, you recall. Prices are down somewhat now (so are incomes), but the disruption of our price level will cling for at least 30 years.

Mr. Baruch's plan for drafting wealth and property includes government fixing of all prices. He says: "prices of materials, commodities and in fact, all things would be declared fixed as of such and such a date, and it would be illegal either to buy or sell at a different price."

"The excess proportion, if any, of the profits in industry and internal revenue would go to the prosecution of the war."

"If such an organization, which we were approaching at the end of the war, had been put into effect at the beginning of the cost of the war in my opinion would have been not more than one-half of what it was, and there would not have been charges of profiteering and economic chaos after the war."

All very true. The trouble is the whole idea is too sensible to be put into effect.

Radio Taken to Birds In Haunts

Reports from England point to the adoption of radio as a means for catching the voices of song birds in their native haunts.

Recently British broadcast listeners were treated to just such entertainment when the manager of a station took the microphone into the woods, concealed it as motion picture operators do their cameras, and transmitted the music of the woods to the cities.

Adoption of this plan is suggested to American broadcasters by the American Radio Relay League.

BROADCASTING HAS CENSORSHIP

What goes into the air and is received by radio fans is subject to a censorship keener and more arbitrary than any other check.

For a station, a listener may suddenly strike a minute or two of silence during a broadcast program he has been receiving with remarkable volume and selectivity.

The reason the radio censor has shut out a talk, contrary to the speaker's wish, is that the radio censor believes it is not suitable for transmission.

And what is suitable for transmission is entirely up to the man listening in at the broadcasting station, with his hand ready to turn the switch. There is no conference, no deliberation. A talk, contrary to the opinions of this one dictator is cut off without a moment's delay.

RECEIVER CAN BE TRANSMITTER

There are several receivers in use today that are transmitting at the same time.

The result is that they are sources of troublesome interference to neighboring radio fans.

Improper manipulation of the dials causes whistles and squeals which break into reception of broadcast programs by other listeners. A satisfactory circuit receiver, although there are other circuits, like the three-tuned circuit, that causes trouble.

To keep the set from radiating the dials should be adjusted to the point just below that at which a whistle is heard. That keeps the detector tube at the oscillation point and yet just below the point at which it radiates.

COPPER BUSINESS THANKS RADIO

The copper industry in the United States offers its thanks to radio. On the basis of an estimated total of 3,500,000 receiving sets in the country, radio apparatus has consumed 4,000,000 pounds of copper, says a report by the Copper and Brass Research Association, New York.

In five years, the report adds, we may expect as many radio sets as there are automobiles today—about 15,000,000. Raising the use of copper in the next five years to about 5,000,000 pounds annually.

In New York

After 30 years of roaming the world, outwitting promoters of sporting events out of admission fees, railroad companies of fares and cafe owners of food, he is ready to quit—the recognized champion of his art.

He had one dollar—less the price of a package of cigarettes—when I talked with him yesterday.

James for that is his name—is 42 years old and was born in Lowell, Mass. His left eye was put out with the strings of a boxing glove, when as a boy he was performing as a preliminary fighter. He is single.

Connelly has made eight trips to Europe, two to Australia, 20 to the Pacific coast, eight to New Orleans and two to Cuba. His journeys have not cost him a cent. He rode "12 inches below the floor of Pullmans" on boards, placed on the car rods, and did odd jobs on steamers.

"But what has it gotten me?" he pleaded. "Pages of publicity, an international acquaintanceship, a fund of romantic experiences—but I can't sell them for a dime."

His ingenious efforts devoted almost exclusively to lines would have made him wealthy.

Though Connelly is identified with his plight, there is many a man of wealth who would pay well for his experiences, adventures and acquaintances.

Connelly may be he through an itinerant gate-crasher.

Our guess is the newspapers will tell of his attendance at the next championship prize fight, wherever and whenever it is held.

But today his one sincere ambition is to get a job—and of his thousands of acquaintances not one will take him seriously.

—STEPHEN HANNAHAN.

WOMAN SHOT WITHOUT ANY APPARENT CAUSE

(By The Associated Press.)

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 18.—Mrs. Mary Walker Hinesy, 30, a Sunday school teacher, was shot tonight by Roe Price Wise, proprietor of a local store, while she was attending a weekly supper at the main street Baptist church here. She was not seriously wounded. Wise, who is held by the police on a blanket charge of suspicion, was said to have entered the church and fired three shots at Mrs. Hinesy, two of them going wild. The third shot struck the woman in the hip.

Mrs. Hinesy, at a hospital tonight refused to discuss the shooting. Her husband, C. H. Hinesy, said he could not understand why Wise should shoot his wife unless it was because she refused several weeks ago to accept a position in his store. Mrs. Hinesy formerly worked in the Wise store.

Criminal proceedings will be instituted against Wise tomorrow, police said.

Three more places to visit in the famous Shenandoah Valley

THE motorist passing down the Shenandoah Valley from Winchester or coming over from Luray will find Harrisonburg a convenient and comfortable stopping place. While here he should visit Stoneleigh House, the Headquarters of General Sherman during part of his memorable Shenandoah Campaign.

A few miles south of Harrisonburg, near Bridgewater, are the Cyclopean Towers, known locally as the Natural Chimneys. These hollow limestone rocks, typical of the curious formations above and below ground throughout this district, are well worth a visit.

Stoneleigh House, Harrisonburg, Va. Sherman's Headquarters in 1862.

At Staunton the motorist should stop to see the Presbyterian Manse, the birthplace and boyhood home of Woodrow Wilson.

This is just one of the many interesting tours which we suggest in the State of Virginia. While touring you will find other evidences of the "Standard" policy of universal service to motorists. Road markers are maintained at all important junctions, and danger signs at danger points. Thousands of pumps make power available wherever cars travel, and service stations abound where, in addition to gasoline, oil, air and water, crank case service may be had.

Recalls Death of Ketchel

BY JOE WILLIAMS

NEW YORK, June 19.—Bill Brennan, noted heavyweight, one a menacing barrier in the path of Dempsey the champion, is shot down and killed by a New York gangster.

Few fighters go that way. Most of them round out life's allotted span and pass away peacefully as farmers, iron workers, actors or retired capitalists.

The man who makes his living battering human opponents to the canvas is instinctively a savage and through his system must course the impulses of the killer.

Yet the ring has been singularly free of violent tragedies. Ketchel shot to death.

Stanley Ketchel was the only other noted fighter in memory to go to his death by an assassin's bullet. Ketchel, a middleweight champion, was murdered by Walter Dwyer, a farmer, at Corwary, Mo., Oct. 15, 1910.

Ketchel had gone to the Missouri village to train and was quartered at the Dwyer farm house. A discourteous remark addressed to a feminine member of the family by the fighter brought on a scarlet controversy. That night as he sat at the table eating Ketchel was killed.

There was no quiet, pastoral background for Brennan's death. The Chicago Irishman died in the midst of the gay crowd he loved—the night life with its barbaric melodies, morbid characters and electric atmosphere.

"A dope bumped him off," That was the police sergeant's laconic report. Brennan was not the fighter Ketchel was. Brennan was a plodder whose durability and infinite courage carried him higher in pugilism than anyone expected him to go. Ketchel was an artist with the fists, a tremendous hater, cat like on his feet, and smart as a steel whip.

Once Brennan ran amuck in ring circles and built up a lengthy list of knockouts. The experts began to call him a "knockout king." But chief credit belonged to his astute manager, Leo Flynn, who exercised extreme caution in selecting opponents for his man.

Lacked Kayo Wallop. Indeed, had Brennan been able to hit with even ordinary power he would have won the championship from Dempsey in 1920. The champion held Brennan cheaply, refused to train and entered the ring in beefy, billowy shape, hoping to end the fight with a punch.

Brennan held the champion off for 12 rounds and then succumbed from his own exhaustion. Time after time he reached Dempsey with full pot shots to the jaw, but his blows lacked ed the death sting. A Willard, a Firpo, a Gibbons, even a Carpenter would have put the champion away that night.

Ancient and charming custom of holding ball games on bellicent bases of non-skid left hooks and self-lubricating right crosses is being revived.

Revived is pretty and proper language. After recent massacre between Yanks and Tigers, plumbers, Big Ben, diabolical raves, and a Hiram Johnson bellows were needed to revive infuriated athletes.

This was putting soup spots on other. Real games these days are duller than keynote's speech, and usually it's the customers who have to be revived.

Might not be an uncouth idea at that if the boys revived the lively ball with the lively fist.

One Punch O'Goofy can remember when knuckle parties were as much a part of the game as left field foul line and unmuzzled hot dogs.

In those days, remarks Mr. O'Goofy, everything went including your ears, if you didn't duck quick enough.

They had a column in the box score and the summary would read: "Knucklows Kelly 3 black eyes, Swatens 2, north lost McGraw 6, but by pitcher (with some puns) McGurdy Chynova Kopdeska and Ryan, left on bases (unclear) and Murphy Cohen Bill Schwartz held on with long swanking right hand. Arrows 48. Time 90 days and 10 cents.

BRILLIANT PITCHING AND TIMELY HITTING GIVES LOCALS VICTORY

Danville shut Winston-Salem out in the final game of the series and won easily, 8 to 0.

The masterly pitching of Shoaf and the timely and consecutive hitting of the Danville players enabled them to win in a walk despite the errors shared to the team. Manager Murphy himself having three of the five misplays. But he atoned for that with a remarkable batting average, slugging out four consecutive hits, one for two bases, in the ninth inning. One of his hits scored Regan in the first inning; his second hit scored the same player again in the third; his third hit drove Staley across in the fifth, and his fourth hit scored on singles by McDonnell and Regan, and his fourth hit scored Shoaf in the sixth.

It is rare indeed that a pitcher and particularly the winning pitcher in a shut-out game does not strike out a batsman, but that was true of the pitching of Shoaf yesterday. Little John, the moundman for the Twins, struck out but one Danville batsman, Regan in the fifth. Pitcher Shoaf yielded only five hits, all of them singles, and no two in an inning. He gave but two bases on balls, and both of these in the final inning, and one, if not both, of these purposely. Waldron and Hamby being the beneficiaries.

Only in the fifth and ninth innings did the visitors threaten to dent Danville's lead. In the fifth, the Danville pitcher, Ernest by Little, turned back a pretty double play, Murphy to Staley to Resco, relieving the situation in the fifth.

In the ninth inning with one out, Bill Waldron drew a pass and Regan, a single to left field, and a beautiful catch of Smith's long fly to left for the second out. The dangerous Hamby was the next batsman, and it was deemed good strategy to walk him to first. With the out, Moore proved unusually hard to dispose of for the final out. He waited Shoaf out until the count was 3 and 1, thus compelling the pitcher to put a ball over or side pass Moore and force him to strike.

With remarkable control, Shoaf threw no fewer than five successive balls over the plate, all of which Moore fouled. Finally the batsman drove a hard rap to Shoaf and himself, who handled the drive and forced the batsman out for the final out.

Danville scored in blocks of two in the first, third and fifth innings and got another each in the sixth and eighth. All these runs were scored by consecutive hitting and by the Danville players bunched their buntages with one bingle and two stolen bases, which netted Danville its pair of scores. With one out in that inning Staley got on by Waldron's error. He had a good lead and was assured a stolen base, even had Hamby not thrown badly, and he continued his sprint to the hot corner. He is credited with a stolen base and Hamby with an error. Regan got on by a steal of second, and McDonauld and Staley scored immediately negotiated a steal of second, and counted when Murphy rapped one through to right. With pitching such as the steady, heady brand displayed by Shoaf yesterday and the team batting behind him for an average of .394, it is easy

Struck out by Littlejohn 2, off Shoaf 2. Hits by pitched ball: Ernest by Littlejohn. Left on bases: Winston, 7; Danville, 6. Earned runs: Danville 8, Winston 0. Errors: Winston, 3; Danville, 2. Time of game: 1:45. Umpires: Osborne and Mahley. Attendance, 750.

To understand how the game was won. None of the local errors counted chiefly because Shoaf allowed so few batsmen to get on otherwise. Such batting strength and particularly such consecutive hitting will win a team. Doubtless strengthened as a fielding aggregation and its batting power increased by the addition of Staley the Danville team is a far more formidable team than they were a few days ago. It will give a good account of themselves.

The Champions leave today for a series in Durham the rest of the week and thence will go to Greensboro for the first half of next week. The Danville team has been away but will probably join the team at Durham. With McWhirter, Shoaf, Matland, Wilson and Westledge in form, the Danville team is well prepared in the box line while the new fixed alignment of players is fast developing more efficient team work. Trefrey is proving his value to the team by his fast fielding his speed on the base-paths and his judgment of pitching and his ability to win a game by his always even temper and gentlemanly conduct. Regan always in the game to do his level best in making a record as a run-getter, and his stolen base total is becoming a highly creditable one. Staley as a runner-up is putting him on his mettle, and McDonauld is fast on the paths.

GREENSBORO TAKES LICKING: BOURG HAS RED LETTER DAY

GREENSBORO, June 18.—Charlie Carroll's badly crippled team dropped the game here today that closed the series with the Danville team, 6 to 2.

Harris hit the first pitched ball in the ninth inning out of the lot for a home run and in the same inning Cox followed with a blow that cleared the fence but was a few feet foul.

First Baseman Bourg, of the Bulls, had 17 plate appearances and slugged out three hits and scored one run while Lennox also made three sacrifices and counted once. O'Hara, for the locals, lead with the stick, getting three safeties. The box score follows:

NEW AUTO LAW SHOULD REDUCE THEFT INSURANCE

(By The Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, Va., June 18.—The cost of automobile theft insurance should be reduced ten per cent, July 1, when the new title registration law, passed by the last general assembly, becomes effective. Motor Vehicle Commissioner James H. Hayes, Jr., announced today.

The new law, which is similar to that of several other states, requires automobile owners to register their cars with the motor vehicle commissioner. The certificate of registration is transferred with the car, if sold, and the transfer recorded by the commissioner. This is said to minimize the risk of theft and make lower insurance rates possible.

RESULTS OF SOUTH AFRICAN ELECTION

CAPETOWN, UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA, June 18.—The South African general election of yesterday, it is indicated by the latest available returns, constitutes a direct setback to the Smuts government, whose majority of seven in the last parliament over the opposing parties, labor and nationalists, had been wiped out.

Most of the returns from the country districts are still to be received but political experts say these are not expected to show any great change.

The latest results give the South African party of Premier Smuts 35 members, labor 18, the nationalists 23 and one independent P. S. Malan, the minister of mines, was defeated at Malmesbury, where P. A. Bergh, nationalist, was elected.

A two-inch base placed in a stream will, under favorable conditions, reach 10 inches in about two years.

NEW AUTO LAW SHOULD REDUCE THEFT INSURANCE

(By The Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, Va., June 18.—The cost of automobile theft insurance should be reduced ten per cent, July 1, when the new title registration law, passed by the last general assembly, becomes effective. Motor Vehicle Commissioner James H. Hayes, Jr., announced today.

The new law, which is similar to that of several other states, requires automobile owners to register their cars with the motor vehicle commissioner. The certificate of registration is transferred with the car, if sold, and the transfer recorded by the commissioner. This is said to minimize the risk of theft and make lower insurance rates possible.

RESULTS OF SOUTH AFRICAN ELECTION

CAPETOWN, UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA, June 18.—The South African general election of yesterday, it is indicated by the latest available returns, constitutes a direct setback to the Smuts government, whose majority of seven in the last parliament over the opposing parties, labor and nationalists, had been wiped out.

Most of the returns from the country districts are still to be received but political experts say these are not expected to show any great change.

The latest results give the South African party of Premier Smuts 35 members, labor 18, the nationalists 23 and one independent P. S. Malan, the minister of mines, was defeated at Malmesbury, where P. A. Bergh, nationalist, was elected.

A two-inch base placed in a stream will, under favorable conditions, reach 10 inches in about two years.

CHARGES ANTI-GERMAN PROPAGANDA AGAINST BAYREUTH

BAYREUTH, Bavaria, June 18.—Siegfried Wagner, who has just returned from a tour of America to raise money for the perpetuation of the Wagnerian festivals at Bayreuth, has delivered a lecture here in which he expressed satisfaction with his American trip. He said the amount of money he obtained for the festival will make the revival of the summer opera season possible, but will not suffice for long.

Wagner made the statement that the French propaganda in the United States against Germany and the Germans hindered his work. But there was also anti-Bayreuth propaganda, which charged that he was only soliciting money for his own purse. But above all the Washington flag incident was the worst blow he had to face in his American tour.

Wagner expressed much satisfaction with the artistic success of his American visit, and was enthusiastic about the hospitable treatment accorded to him and his wife by Americans.

Receivership For Klan Is Requested

(By The Associated Press.)
MUNCIE, Ind., June 18.—Receivership for the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is asked in a suit filed in court here today by James F. Hildebrand, Muncie insurance agent, who alleges the organization is violating the provisions of its Indiana charter which sets out that the organization is not for profit. Hildebrand alleges that the Ku Klux Klan is insolvent and owes $6,000,000. Hildebrand is national treasurer of the Independent Klan of America formed here recently by chapters seceding from the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Hildebrand charges in the suit that the Klan's money is being divided among officers "according to the will and discretion, and desires of the former Texas dentist, Hiram W. Evans, now his lordship in the defendant organization. It is alleged in the complaint that more than $6,000,000 was paid into the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan treasury by Indiana members, including the profit of the which money was to have been used in building and establishing a university to be known as the American University. That $50,000 in Ku Klux Klan at $5 each and that $250 of this sum was to go into the fund to establish the university, but that after receiving $5,000,000 in this way the defendant organization provided the money among its officers and did not use any of it for the purpose intended.

It is alleged the Ku Klux Klan gave to William Joseph Simmons, for head of the Klan, $145,000 of this money, gave $100,000 to a secretary for carrying the likeness of Robert E. Lee on the face of Stone Mountain and that the officers of the corporation otherwise have dissipated the money of the members.

WEST VIRGINIA STILL UNDERGOING REPAIRS

(By The Associated Press.)
NORFOLK, Va., June 18.—The U. S. S. West Virginia, which went aground on the edge of Thimble Shoals Channel Monday, is still in Lynnhaven Roads, undergoing repairs to a condenser broken when she fouled in the channel, but probably will be ready to sail on her shake-down cruise to Brest, France, Friday. A navy yard crew of welders has been at work since early yesterday morning repairing the condenser head on the battleship.

Naval authorities at the naval base, in explaining the cause of the accident, stated that the vessel was in mid-channel at high water and in some way sucked mud into her condensers. It was necessary to shut off the ship's power and the big vessel drifted to the north side of the water lane, where her huge weight was held fast in the mud all day.

CLOSE GUBERNATORIAL RACE IN MAINE

(By The Associated Press.)
PORTLAND, Maine, June 18.—Whether Frank G. Farrington, president of the Main senate, or state senator Ralph O. Brewster, was nominated for governor in the Republican primary Monday will not be determined until the official returns have been tabulated at the state house, because of the close vote. The next meeting of the governor and council, which is responsible for the tabulation, will be held on June 28.

With a score of small places missing in the unofficial returns today, Senator Farrington still had a lead of about 200, the vote standing Farrington 47,323, Brewster 47,061.

TODAY'S Washington LETTER

By HARRY B. HUNT

Backers of the Cleveland conference profess to feel that the LaFollette cause came through the Cleveland convention with enhanced prestige. It is a matter of much pride that the LaFollette supporters stuck fast to their principles, amid boogie and hissing, but without any exhibition of bitterness or rancor on their part, and presented their demands in a dignified proper manner, even though recognizing the futility of their protest.

Not merely the "radical" middle west and west will be represented at the July 4th gathering, where the LaFollette candidacy will be launched. Eastern industrial centers and New England, also, will have active workers on the ground, and an effort will be made to build up a following in what heretofore has been considered barren soil for insurgent seed.

More optimistic of the third party boosters maintain that the LaFollette candidacy will prove stronger than the third party candidacy of Roosevelt in 1912.

The Roosevelt movement, these men insist, was purely personal and political. It had no economic basis tending to force a new alignment on national policies.

The present situation, however, is held as having its foundation purely on economic causes, and must be regarded as much more substantial and compelling.

That great bells in historic Notre Dame de Paris are now rung by electricity.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—

With the Republican convention out of the way and the "liberal" plank proposed by the Wisconsin delegate rejected by the G. O. P., the plans for the "LaFollette convention" at Cleveland, July 4, are gathering momentum. Reports reaching the headquarters of the Committee for Progressive Political Action, through which the conference was called, indicate that approximately 1000 "delegates" will be on hand when the session is called to order in the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers' auditorium.

Work of organizing the convention has been carried on under the supervision of Arthur Holder, former member of the Federal Board for Vocational Education and previously legislative representative of the American Federation of Labor.

Holder is the man who "sold" Congress the idea of providing vocational training as a chief agency for rehabilitating disabled veterans of the war.

The central organization behind the LaFollette candidacy, as now seems certain, puts the Wisconsin senator in the running for president, will be built around existing State organizations of the Conference for Progressive Political Action.

This movement already is organized in 32 States. In 20 States it is regarded as well entrenched, and in most of these it already has been through one or more campaigns and has played a decisive part in the election not only of State officers but also of congressmen and senators, notably Shipstead, Brookhart and Magnus Johnson.

It is recognized, however, that a new name must be found in this body to be continued as the medium through which the third party campaign is to be conducted.

"Conference for Progressive Political Action" is too long and ponderous. If LaFollette's candidacy makes real headway, it will need a few catch words to offset the slogans and phrases already being built around the Coolidge-Dawes combination.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, June 19.—The stock prices fluctuated irregularly at the opening of today's market and traders shifted their commitments from one side to the other. Atlantic Refining reflected additional liquidation, dropping more than a point to a new 19 1/2 low at 95 1/2. General Electric and several other stocks extended recent gains. Colorado Fuel reaching the year's highest level at 46 3/4.

Efforts to bring about further liquidation were successful only in spots, such as the rubber group, which reflected uneasiness over prospective tire price cuts. Kelly Springfield fell to the year's lowest price at 11 and Goodrich and U. S. Rubber issues were weak. Omission of the quarterly dividend by United Alloy Steel sent that stock to a new minimum, along with Royal Dutch. Profit taking forced Stewart-Warner back 1 1/2 points. Spread buying of the railroad shares developed, however, on the announcement of increased carloadings for the first week in June. Chesapeake and Ohio, "Nickel Plate" and Gulf, Mobile and Northern pfd established new 1934 high records and Southern Pacific repeated its recent high. Market strength was shown by Mathieson Alkali which advanced more than 2 points to 44 and by Maxwell "A" and Yellow Cab. Foreign exchange opened steady.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW ORLEANS, June 19.—The cotton market had a quiet opening in which first trades were five to six points down compared with yesterday's close. Liverpool was hardly up to expectations and there were private reports of cooler weather in the west. Prices eased off right after the opening call to 25 1/2 for October and 25.04 for December or 15 to 16 points net lower but promptly rallied, recovering about half of the initial loss and ruled quiet but steady waiting for the weather map.

NEW YORK COTTON.

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, June 19.—The cotton market opened steady today at a decline of 6 to 12 points under realizing, apparently prompted by prospects for cooler weather in the southwest and belief that the technical position of the market has eased through recent covering.

Liverpool made a fairly steady showing, however, and after selling off to 28.75 for July and 26.08 for October the market here rallied a few points. Business was quiet and fluctuations were narrow.

Liverpool cables reported the steadiness there due to a better spot demand and some buying of new crop months by the continent on less favorable crop reports.

MORNING COTTON LETTER

Thomson & McKinnon.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Cables from London show crop months clean weather prevailed in western belt yesterday with maximum temperature over 100 in west Texas. Forecast for Texas is fair and warmer today, cooler tomorrow in Northwestern portion, scattered showers predicted for other cotton states.

Technical position of the market is no doubt easier because of the apparent covering the past two days but no setbacks of consequence is likely. The crop is a long way from being made.

MORNING STOCK LETTER

Thomson & McKinnon.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Next week there will be lot of great men in New York, each one with a patent of his own how to run things right. Since the lessons learned from Europe's school of finance in playing with the mark and other things they call money, we probably won't hear so much about free green backs and free silver but they will probably tell us how to cure some of the ills of the West which is for a bank to lend $100 an acre on $50 land and keep the bank solvent. Some of the delegates should be made margin clerks for a few weeks in some of the big banks and then you would see some fireworks.

I rather expect that they will send a few shivers through the country while in session but as soon as they adjourn the country will, somehow or other, manage to get along. And in the meantime as opportunity presents itself pick up some stocks.

A FEW TIPS

Here are a few rules to follow when reaching New York. They will save you argument and money.

If possible, take a taxicab with a green meter. They are the cheapest and the best in the city. If you can't get one with a green meter, take one with a blue meter. They are next cheapest. Avoid cabs with red or white meters. They charge a "double tariff" for more than two passengers, and are higher in price for one passenger.

If you arrive at the Grand Central Terminal, DON'T taxi to the following hotels: Belmont, Commodore, Biltmore.

If you arrive at the Pennsylvania Station, DON'T taxi to the Pennsylvania Hotel.

These hotels are either across the street from the station mentioned or less than two minutes walk away.

Hotels within one block of the Pennsylvania Station are: McAlpin, Martinique, Imperial and Grand.

Subways may be had at either station.

If you fail to get accommodation at your favorite hotel, get in touch with the Hotel Association, telephone Pennsylvania 6566. This organization will maintain a room bureau, and will do its best to help you.

(By The Associated Press.)

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 18.—With a former filibuster record of 29 hours broken, the Rhode Island senate still was in session late tonight with indication that the deadlock would continue tomorrow.

The former filibuster in February was interrupted with several recesses, but the present deadlock which began yesterday afternoon at two o'clock has been continuous with Lieutenant Governor Tufin, the presiding officer of the senate, and the secretary of state and reading clerk remaining in their places.

The Democrats have been carrying on a filibuster all session aided by the action of Lieutenant Governor Tufin, the presiding officer of the senate, and the secretary of state and reading clerk remaining in their places.

During the evening Senator Quinn and Republican state committeeman John A. Lotrendre engaged in a fist fight in the senate corridor and several blows were exchanged before they were separated.

Squads of providence police and deputy sheriffs continued on guard prepared for any emergency. Thousands thronged the senate house, and

Even dull business conditions have their bright side for the public. For instance, the recent slackening of industry has "softened" wholesale prices of the 86 basic commodities dropped over two per cent, on the average, during May. Not much well if that drop percolates through to the cost of living a saving of two cents on every dollar you spend wouldn't be half bad.

It is insuring British dealers against loss of their income by prohibition. And Lloyd's is betting 500 to 1 that Britain will continue wet.

Despite the sudden slackening of business during May, bank clearings (bank checks written the country over) continued mounting during May. They exceeded $6,663 million dollars—compared with only $2,883 million dollars in February when every one was working and spending full-blast.
